1. A brief analysis of the key issues involved in the litigation, including a specific breakdown of the claimed damages.
2. A description of the strongest and weakest legal and factual points in the party's case.
3. A description of the strongest and weakest legal and factual points in the opponent's case.
4. The status of settlement negotiations, including the last settlement proposal made by each side. In this regard, counsel are directed to confer with their clients in advance of the mediation conference to explore the party's settlement position, and the parties are encouraged to exchange settlement proposals prior to the conference.
5. The settlement proposal that the party believes would be fair.
6. The settlement proposal that the party would be willing to make in order to conclude the matter at this time.

Each memorandum shall be sealed, held in confidence by the court and returned to the party at the conclusion of mediation. The memoranda shall be sent to Bethaney Healy, Deputy Clerk, Clerk's Office, United States District Court, 1550 Main Street, Springfield, Massachusetts 01103.

In the event any party believes the case is not ripe for mediation, please notify other counsel and the court as soon as possible.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
